

Current Issues in Safeguarding 2010 presented by Rachel Jones

Updated from last year this is an opportunity for delegates to explore the broader safeguarding agenda in the context of Adoption in 2010.

7th June 2010 Birmingham

Rachel Jones:

Rachel is an experienced social work practitioner, trainer and manager with a background in Children's Social Care, and a strong Child Protection focus. She has worked with Local Safeguarding Children Boards and been a member of an Adoption Panel for a number of years.

When this course was run in 2009 the content was evaluated as extremely useful and Rachel's presentation style was highly rated.

PROGRAMME: 10.30 am - 3.30 pm

The day will consist of a mixture of presentations and workshop sessions and will include (although not necessarily exclusively) attention to the following areas:

- Lord Laming and beyond
- Learning from Serious Case reviews
- E Safety - protecting children in an electronic age
- Is your organisation a safe one? An audit tool to use.
- Safeguarding in Adoption Support Cases
- Allegations against carers and/or staff
- Assessment of risk in relation to safeguarding

Training Certificates will be issued for delegates' GSCC registration purposes

Venue: By kind permission the training will be held at the offices of
Anthony Collins Family Law Solicitors Birmingham B3 2ES
A five minute walk from Snows Hill station and ten minutes from New St.

Bookings: To reserve places for your agency please email to :
c.prickett@cvaa.org.uk to receive or return a completed booking form

Lunch: Delegates are asked to bring their own lunch to keep the costs down. For the convenience of delegates' travel arrangements, and to cover as much in the day as possible, lunch will be 40 minutes only.

Cost: The cost to CVAA member Agency delegates is £75.00.
£85 to independent/contract SW or other delegates.

There will be an early bird discount of 10% on bookings made six weeks or more prior to the course date. (26th April 2010)

N.B. No increase on the 2009 cost.

Cancellations: If a delegate is unable to attend a course CVAA can accept a substitute delegate at no additional cost.
If a booking is cancelled six weeks or more prior to the training day date CVAA will offer to reimburse agencies 50% of the booking fee or give a credit for a place on another/future course
If a booking is cancelled within six weeks prior to the training day date CVAA is not able to offer a refund or credit note.