

The Isle of Man Adoption Service

MAKING THE DIFFERENCE

Would you like to help shape the future of adoption services on the Isle of Man?

Are you passionate about supporting adoptive families and children? Could you work in adoption with some degree of openness in each Island placement?

IOMAS has a vacancy for a Senior Social Worker (Adoption) – full time

IOMAS provides all the adoption services across the Isle of Man, under contract to the Isle of Man Department of Social Care (Social Services Division). We are continually developing proactive support services for adoptive families, children and birth families on the Island, as well as recruiting Manx families for Manx and other British children. Our team is creative, professional and challenging, and keen to develop new ways of working in partnership both professionally and with our adoption community.

We are looking to recruit one full time social worker who:

- Has a recognised social work qualification (CQSW, Dip SW)
- Is registered with the GSCC or similar
- Has a minimum of 3 years post qualifying experience in a relevant field
- Has good communication, negotiation and assessment skills
- Has the ability to work independently and within a small team setting
- Is keen to develop services to all parties touched by adoption
- Some experience of adoption work would be preferred

IOMAS offers:

- Excellent remuneration, based on IOM Civil Service scales
- Access to IOM Local Government Pension Scheme
- Flexible working time/expenses
- Individual and team training opportunities

Closing date for application: 6 September 2010

Interview: before the end of September 2010
