

St Margaret's Children and Family Care Society

Senior Practitioner                      £30,587 - £35,123

St Margaret's is a long established adoption agency based in Glasgow which provides a comprehensive service to those involved in adoption and associated fostering. We work within the social and moral teaching of the Catholic Church to provide a highly professional, committed, and caring service. We are committed to creativity and reflection in our practice, and we strive to ensure a high level of job satisfaction to our staff.

This is a unique opportunity to join a small specialist team with an established reputation for excellent practice in the field of adoption. We are seeking a suitably qualified professional with at least two years experience, and who can take on responsibility for post adoption support in addition to recruitment and preparation of adoption applicants, adoption counselling and positive promotion of the agency.

In addition to an excellent salary we will provide:

- Up to 28 days annual leave
- Flexible working
- Free floating public holiday entitlement
- Sickness Benefit Scheme
- Pension Scheme

This post is subject to a PVG check. The successful applicant will be expected to undertake a degree of evening work, and there may be occasions when overnight travel is required.
